What else?

Freebies: We'll be giving away some sweet little freebies to all our in-person visitors throughout the Grand Hooray!

Prizes: All in-person & online purchases will be entered into our daily prize drawings.

Sales: We have tons and tons of deep discounts on charts. Half off on many wonderful designers. Do NOT miss the sale bins... You'll be shocked at what we've put in there!

Live Online Sales: To make this accessible to our online family, I'll be doing a daily 10 minute YouTube video at 7 pm Eastern where I show sale charts from a different bin each day. I'll stop at 10 minutes, and you'll have the next 24 hours to send me an email with the charts you want.

YouTube: @SassyJacksStitchery

Email: hello@sassyjacksstitchery.com

I'll go through each email in the order received and send invoices for the charts if still available. When I do the video for the next day, I'll delete the previous day's video and we'll go through a new batch. You'll have another 24 hours for those charts.

You can request that I hold your order until the last day if you'd like to combine shipping.

YouTube and Facebook Live Videos and MORE PRIZES: I'll also be doing at least one video per day where I'll talk about our new shop home, our special exclusives, our prize offerings, our class offerings, some samplers (and some for sale), and anything else that hits my radar or that you request in the comments.

To be entered into our prize drawings for the videos, be sure to subscribe to our YouTube channel, like the video, and leave a comment each day. I'll do a drawing each day.

@SassyJacksStitchery is our YouTube channel.

Model and Sampler Sales: Did you miss that little blurb about the chance to buy some models and/or antique samplers? Maybe just a few so be sure to watch those videos.

Three Free Social/Food Events: Don't miss the three events at the shop where we'll be luring you in with a bit of food and fun on the patio or porches. What more could you ask for than good friends, good food, and a house full of beautiful stitchy stuff??

And come meet The Sunshine Stitchers and Fiber Talk and Everette!! All of them are so excited for the chance to be with us and to meet you all. Please do come by and visit!

Address: 446 Weaverville Rd, Asheville, NC 28804

Really we're in Woodfin, NC, just a smidge North of Asheville, but the Asheville post office wants to claim us, so we'll let them... sometimes!

See you soon friends!!

Much Stitchy Love,

Kim, Kathryn, Sarah, Charles, Elizabeth, and Angie (Sassy Crew)

Shelia & EJ and 10 other friends (Sunshine Stitchers – See their YouTube Channel @SunshineStitchers)

Gary, Beth, Cindy, Jenifer, Robin (Fiber Talk – See their YouTube @FiberTalk and Podcast Channels)

And always first in my heart... Everette Ponder Jr., who spent many long hours making this dream a reality. All the love you'll feel in this house that holds our little shop grew from the love and kindness of his hands and heart, as he gave this beautiful old house a brand-new life to live.

I hope you feel our love of our little shop, and of our fiber friends far and near, whether in-person or through the "inter-web". My cup truly runneth over with gratitude and joy.

Now... Let's Celebrate!
Let the Grand Hooray Begin!!
